Department of Military Affairs Statistics

Department of Military Affairs employee gender and race statistics were pulled from the Office of State Employee Relations (OSER)'s State employee database in April 2009.

Employees that didn't report either gender or race were not included in this analysis.

Wisconsin Statistics

Wisconsin race and gender statistics are from the U.S. Census Bureau, 2005-2007 American Community Survey. These data are based on a sample and are subject to sampling variability, however these survey data were used on the map to provide a more current statistic than is available from the 2000 Census.

For more information about sampling margins of error, visit the US Census Bureau's website at <http://factfinder.census.gov>.
