22 & 24 SEPTEMBER 2015

ECOMP -101

- Also known as the Employee's Compensation Operations & Management Portal
- It's a streamlined process
- It's a product of the U.S. Department of Labor

ECOMP (Employee's Compensation Operations and Management Portal)

(1 of 2)

- New online system for filing workers compensation(OWCP) claims
- Employees must register before filing a claim
- Employees must know supervisor email address
- Employees must know employing organization

ECOMP (Employee's Compensation Operations and Management Portal) (2 of 2)

- Supervisors may have to register if filing a claim on employee behalf
- Training available for employees, supervisors and safety on DMA public website and DOL ECOMP
- http://dma.wi.gov/dma/hr/emp_resources/owcp.asp
- <https://www.ecomp.dol.gov>

The ECOMP Process (1 of 3)

- Employee informs supervisor of work related injury or illness.
- Supervisor briefly investigates and authorizes employee to seek medical care, provides billing information / ACS Billing Card
- Employee initiates the claim filing process by creating an account, filing an OSHA-301, CA-1 or CA-2, loads medical treatment information from medical visit

The ECOMP Process (2 of 3)

- Supervisor receives the OSHA-301 and CA-1 or CA-2
- Supervisor processes OSHA-301 and CA-1 or CA-2
- Supervisor forwards OSHA-301 to Safety Office for review.

The ECOMP Process (3 of 3)

- Supervisor processes CA-1 or CA-2 forwards to J1 Agency ICPA for review.
- J1 Agency ICPA reviews the contents and authenticates the claim forwards it to OWCP.
- OWCP renders a decision to accept, request more information, or deny the claim, offers appeal rights

Advantages of ECOMP (1 of 2)

Advantages of the program

- Once the employee has registered with ECOMP subsequent claims in ECOMP can be obtained
- Employee and supervisor can file their portion separately
- The computer does not have to be on a CAC enabled system, must establish log on / password
- Employee has his or her own dashboard to view information

Advantages of ECOMP (2 of 2)

Advantages of the program

- Documentation can be attached with the claim
- ECOMP communicates by sending conformation email back to the originator
- Once the claim has been received and processed by OWCP a claim number is assigned for billing purposes.
- Only required to register an ECOMP Account once
