

Off-Boarding, Recruiting, and New Hire Process Checklist

Instructions: This checklist is to be used as guidance to outline the State Human Resources (SHR) process beginning with an employee leaving their position, recruiting and filling the vacancy, and onboarding the new incumbent. If you have any questions about the checklist, please reach out to DMASHR@widma.gov.

| WHO | WHEN | ✓ | NOTICE OF EMPLOYEE DEPARTURE |
|--------------|--|---|--|
| Employee | At least 14 calendar days prior to resignation effective date | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> After discussion with Payroll & Benefits Specialist regarding last day considerations, employee submits Resignation/Retirement Notice form to the supervisor. Employee may supplement the form with a formal letter if desired. Verify the mailing address is current in PeopleSoft to ensure delivery of future communications. Create an out of office notification in email to begin on the last day in office. |
| Supervisor | As soon as possible after receipt of resignation, and prior to employee's last day | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sign acknowledgement portion of Resignation/Retirement Notice form and send to DMAPayroll@widma.gov (include formal resignation letter if employee submitted one). Supervisor may supplement the form with a formal letter of acknowledgement, if desired. If employee has a state issued cell phone, ensure all voicemails were forwarded to Outlook. Once phone is returned to IT, all data will be erased. Review the employee's records to ensure all official records are accounted for and non-records such as duplicates, working notes, and drafts are being destroyed appropriately. Ensure employee has submitted any outstanding travel expense vouchers to ensure payment is made on their last paycheck. Ensure employee has reconciled all outstanding purchasing card statements. |
| Payroll | Prior to employee's last day in the office | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Verify information on the Resignation/Retirement Notice form and sign acknowledgement portion. Email completed form to the employee and cc: the supervisor and the DMA State Human Resources (SHR) distribution list. The email also contains the link to the DMA Employee Exit Survey with the option to schedule an exit interview with SHR staff. Prepare resignation/retirement/transfer benefits letter and COBRA documents. Review absence balances, leave payout, Sick Leave Certification (if applicable). Process final paycheck audit and STAR/PeopleSoft transactions. Complete the necessary PeopleSoft transaction for the employee separation. |
| HR Assistant | Prior to employee's last day in the office | | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Save the completed Resignation/Retirement Notice form to the employee's personnel file in PeopleSoft. Add the vacancy information to the SHR Vacancy Report. Update the organizational chart. Enter the Employee Separation service request into the IT Ticketing System.
